HSCA NAMES CHILDREN’S HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION VICE PRESIDENT OF PHARMACY TERRI LYLE WILSON TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

HSCA thanks past Chair, Jennifer Gedney, for service to the healthcare supply chain

Washington, DC (September 20, 2023) – The Healthcare Supply Chain Association (HSCA), which represents the nation’s leading healthcare group purchasing organizations (GPOs), today announced that Children’s Hospital Association Vice President of Pharmacy Terri Lyle Wilson will serve on HSCA’s Board of Directors. The appointment comes after the departure of Children’s Hospital Association Vice President Jennifer Gedney, who served as Board Chair. TPC President and CEO Roger Nolan will replace Gedney as Immediate Chair.

“Terri is an industry leader in supporting the collaborative efforts of hospitals and health systems to improve healthcare through pharmacy, group purchasing, and clinical quality initiatives,” said HSCA President and CEO Todd Ebert. “Terri’s experience in patient care, hospital sustainability, and comprehensive pharmacy strategy will help HSCA and its member GPOs as they continue to confront issues such as ongoing drug shortages and work to strengthen the healthcare supply chain.

“HSCA and its members are grateful to Jennifer Gedney for her service as Board Chair. Her leadership, expertise, and guidance have been invaluable to HSCA, and we wish her the best,” added Ebert.
